ATTENTION: NICK DRISCOLL

Dear Nick

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the manner in which your company has conducted its' business with the Melville Recreation Centre over the past twelve months. In all aspects of our dealings you and your staff have always conducted your selves with integrity and professionalism.

The advice that you gave prior to the purchase of the equipment was not only objective but also completely accurate. The result has provided us with a gym environment that is exactly suited to our target demographic, flexible in its' application and great looking.

The after sales service has been fantastic with both the amount of down time and the disruption to members kept to a minimum. Your service staff while providing quality support, usually with little notice, also understand the importance of communicating and meeting work deadlines. I don't need to tell you how important that reliability is when dealing with the public.

I look forward to a long association with your Company, and would not hesitate in recommending you selves of the products that you represent to others. Please convey my appreciation to Laurie and the rest of your staff.

Yours Sincerely

Jason Riseley
